It's All New in 2009 at Livewire

Livewire has kick-started a busy 2009 with the release of a new HD show reel, showcasing various large infrastructure projects around Brisbane and South East Queensland and the issues that we will face in the coming year.

The video was produced in full high definition shot on XDCamHD and colour graded and composited in Adobe After Effects.

The piece showcases some of our finest creative work and is a poignant way to begin the year afresh, with exciting projects in the pipeline 2009 promises to be a defining year for Livewire.
